FURTHER DESIGN DEVELOPED

CEO Martin Steininger personally accepted the coveted Archiproducs Design Award in Milan and was visibly impressed:

"This award means a lot to me and my team. There is a lot, a lot of work and innovation behind this product. It is hoped that it will be accepted by consumers and in the design world, but it is not known in advance. We think design ahead, this award confirms our approach to design and at the same time challenges us to continue on this atypical path!"
